ON PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE ABORIGINAL AFFAIRS PLANNING AUTHORITY ACT 1972

Changes are proposed to the Aboriginal Affairs Planning Authority Act to maximise opportunities for divestment and increase Aboriginal land ownership and management, economic activity and improved outcomes for Aboriginal communities.

Consultation is now underway on the proposed changes to the Act, which will streamline divestment of Part III reserved lands, replace outdated terms and clearly define consultation requirements for stakeholders and the Aboriginal Lands Trust.

The following options are available should you wish to learn more or participate in the consultations:
