

A contribution of up to $400.00 will be paid to members of the claim group who attend the meeting from elsewhere. The maximum travel allowance will only be paid to those people who attend the meeting from a distance further than 500kms. All other attendees will be paid a pro-rata amount that will be displayed at the meeting.

To avoid any doubt, no travel allowance will be paid for Information Sessions as these meetings are to provide information to constituents regarding potential native title claims or general information about how claims in the region area progressing. These are not claim group meetings.

Travel allowance is paid per vehicle and to claim the travel allowance you will need to be present for the entire meeting and NTSG staff may ask to see your driver's licence, your vehicle registration or the vehicle itself.

Travel allowance will only be paid from our bank account at the end of the day's meeting. Therefore, it is important to have your current and correct banking details.

NTSG reserves the right to vary travel allowance conditions, at its absolute discretion.

- Native title claimants who live outside the town/city where the meeting is held may be eligible for travel allowance to help cover some of their costs of travelling to the meeting.
- Native title claimants can only claim for travel that is necessary and specifically to attend the meeting. If you are already in the town/city of the meeting for some other purpose (personal/cultural or otherwise), you are not eligible for travel allowance.
- To be eligible, you must be present for the entire length of the meeting.
- If you travel from a place further away than your normal residence, you are not entitled to a larger travel allowance. You will be paid the same amount as if you travelled from your normal residence.
- If you come by car, travel allowance is paid per car, not per individual/passenger.
- Must complete the travel allowance form upon arrival at the meeting, show fuel receipts, your drivers' licence and other related information. NTSG staff may also wish to see your vehicle. Attendees must also sign the meeting attendance form.
- Form FM306 Payment Request must be completed and forwarded to accounts for reimbursement
