Media Release

24 March 2023

Native Title Services Goldfields would like to advise constituents and stakeholders that David Lanagan has given the Board notice of his resignation as CEO of the company.

Terry Grose, Chair of the NTSG Board, stated that:

“David has done a wonderful job in establishing and leading NTSG and the organisation is starting to achieve results for constituents. The Board and staff have greatly appreciated David’s management of the company in its formative years and wish him all the best for the future”.

The Board have started the recruitment process to find a suitably qualified and experienced replacement to lead NTSG from this point forward. While this is in progress the Board has appointed Anthony Sherlock as Acting CEO to manage daily business activities.
